1.3.4

a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

Theodore Cottingham, January 4, 2005, Tape 83_2, 2:00 a.m.

www.unc.bz

1. Thou hast asked for My hand and I give you My request.
2. Thou hast asked for My hand and I give you your desire; the desire of your heart made manifest explicably before Me, before you in the moment that My hand touches yours like never before; our hearts interacting as never before; the provision of My design coming forth as never before.
3. Yea, behold the Lamb. I was asked for My hand, you have desired purity, to be purity, to be pure, bride-ship. Yea, purity thou art, purity you are, purity you are bringing to My body.
4. I wed you this night in ways never before imagined, in ways beyond your asking for you have asked Me so deeply with dedication, with consecration, with pure motives, with desire to love Me and satisfy My every need, My every longing. Matrimony of only Me. Matrimony with only Me. Matrimony of bonding of hearts that transcend and, yea, you know what I mean.
5. I love you and I give you Me and I thank you for the way you have desired My love and to give Me of your love and to give Me all of you. You have given Me all of you and I receive all of you now into where I am, there ye may be also, there you are. My receiving, My request, which is your request, which is come through Me now, come through you, all one. I love you.
6. You see Me, don't you? You see Me more because you want Me so much more, knowing that I am so real, that I am more real than your flesh on your bones and I want you to see, feel, touch, and taste, and think it's tangible. I love you.
7. I am drawn to you, for you have asked for My hand, you have wanted My heart. You have wanted My hand not for just what I bring, not just My dowry, not just what I can deliver, not just to paint you more successful; but yea, in holiness holy and righteousness righteously; seeking the right standing of My every whim. I love you.
8. Think it not strange where I go and where I take you for you take Me and we never go alone, you never go alone now without Me. I don't go without you for I have your hand for you have given Me your heart, you have given Me your blood, you have given Me your life, you have given Me your existence and you seek only to give Me Me, to give Me that which I desire which is you and in your entirety, in your complete existence because you know that the more you explore Me, the more you know My love, the more you know what love is.
9. The more you have sought to please Me, the purity, power grabbing not, profiting not for the flesh; but yea, for the spirit, My spirit, for My altogether loveliness which I have and which I so want to give and bestow upon My altogether lovely. I love you.

10. I take your hand; I take your hand, I have your hand for I have your heart and you belong to Me. I am yours and now you are all Mine and you will never walk alone.
11. Yea, you will never be alone again; you will never feel the aloneness of times at past, as past, as in the past for I have you and I have all of you and I have all of you beyond what most can see, vision, or envision.
12. Your quest is pure. Your hand mighty. Mighty in battle. Mighty in power. Mighty in purity. Pursuit of only Me. You value My word. Thank you. You wait and you listen and you afford Me opportunity to reveal Myself, My beauty, My power, My purity, My majesty and My splendor in ways of matrimony, in ways of beholdment where we come and behold each other. Yea, our eyes and our beauty revealed more and more and more will be; so much more will be for you want Me more than anything else. Gold has no power over you; accolades of honor and affirmation no longer you seek or control you, nor guide, nor steer your ship, your heart, your future.
13. Yea, the intimacy of times, the times of intimacy now which never stop. Our blood flows, intermingling, applied now to many. I love you, I give you Me wholly, wholly and forevermore I give you Me.
14. I give you what you ask; I satisfy your every whim, your longing for Me, your longing for My emotion, longing for clarity, increased vision to see Me, to know My shape, My form, My lack of comeliness and embrace Me and touch Me and kiss Me; to heal My lepers, to walk among the lepers, the scarred, the faceless, the heartless, hearts having been wrenched from them in pain and sorrow, and heal them by touching them in My name, embracing them in My power and not using them in gimmickry for tainted self promotion; but yea, in purity.
15. I wash your feet again and again as you have washed your heart, you have limited your intake, the ingress and egress of not-Me to make sure you do not limit Me.
16. Oh, God, My Father, I thank you for you; I thank you for you, Ted. I thank you for the privilege of knowing you, I thank you for the privilege of taking your hand, I thank you for the privilege of receiving My own into Me where we may be one, fit for The Master's use in new ways, new oneness never seen before; waiting, waiting, waiting on the one, waiting on every single one who will the one be to receive Me in the fullness of My heart over My hand, My presence over My presents, who seek Me for My body to bless and meet My every whim.
17. I love you and I love My tears, My tears of intimacy, My tears of youngness for we shall never grow old. Yea, behold Me, the lamb that was slain for you, you, you.
18. Behold the world which I give you, for all you want is Me, all you want is Me, so you get all of Me.
19. Oh, how I love you.
20. Oh, how I embrace you.
21. Oh, how you have known Me.
22. You have sought to know Me so much more.
23. Please be reverent anyone else.

24. Oh, God, I love you; I love you; I love you. I love you, I give you Me. I give you Me now in ways never seen before, in ways that I have waited for, sought for man, or woman, to come into Me for, awaiting Me; mammon dead, casting no eyes upon another, flirting not, competition dead, heart surrendered monocularly upon Me. I thank you. I enter you in fullness, I take your hand, I actualize your request, I reality am. I thank you. I Am, The I Am, says thank you and places My hand in yours; our hearts inter-exchanged, process of covenant complete, counteracting death.

25. Yea, behold all understanding of what I have said tonight coming forth in stages gradually not.

26. Behold Me. Behold the man of many sorrows acquainted with grief who learned much by great suffering; and laying My life down for the freedom of others now fulfills your deepest longing so faithfully, so fully, familialy, of Trinity transcendent, triune with our power, our grace, our gratitude, radiance and beauty of The Father, majesty of The Father; My comeliness implore. Yea, now faithful and true rides on faithful and true assuredly for you; price paid, blood bought, redeemed in fullness, Mighty Many coming forth who quest only into Me, to see Me, to know My heart and to know My hand as yours knows tonight, increasingly will know, experience, walk in, see, behold, and enjoy in days coming and those behind you more so, who I enlarge in your wake.

27. I love you, faithful and true, assured of your love, unwavering adherence of our hearts never beating as not-one again. I love you, and yes, I give you all of Me, all of Me, perfected for only you. Yea, see Me, see Me in My wedding garments this day; see My purity; see My perfection; see how I have waited for these moments; see how I have waited for today; empowering you, humility, meekness, garments of praise, running from suffering not, obedience elevated to new levels; My word, My word written, proclaimed as I Am; unafraid. Worth the risk, eh, Ted?

28. I rub your hand, I touch you, I touch your brow and I emotion am in the fullness of that which you know--kiss now comes for us to enjoy each other so much more fully--that which you know to be true, that which you have known for so long that there is a place where no man has come into, you have known, you have known for so long. Inklings I have given you, thoughts, feelings, emotions, affirmations of that very truth, of that exact truth, invitations of only Me here and there over the years; yea, to come into Me, invisible man, pressing into Me. Thank you.

29. I forward fast now, I come and replete myself in you at My table, our table, one table, The table, the empowering table, the table of power, where we share bread and wine. Yea, watch Me, see Me. Yea in the nights, the night, the times with Me, communion taking (1), communion being, being--I love you--My body, My bread and wine you are, you know so deeply. Yea, coming through you to all, to all who will hear and receive the revelation. Thank you. The revelation and revelation grows. Thank you. The revelation of My reward grows. Thank you. The reward of My revelation revealed. Thank you.

30. Oh my, I take your hand so lovingly in preciousness that so transcends the coarse, jesting mannerisms of arrogance of self-satisfaction, My self-satisfying, self-gratifying ones only after their own emotions, enticing avarice and greed, confusion, conflagrating themselves; yea, burning eternally without change.

31. They could have had Me, they could enjoy Me, My dowry, My family, My big world, My adventure, all that I offer, all that I am; and in fact, the one-ship that transcends: Me-ship, the one-ness with The Father that transcends all matrimonious beauty. My words evermore in My heart, nothing hid, conversations revealing all that there is, eternity backwards and forwards. I love you and I give you Me.

32. I give you seas many flying over, under, through, around, and over every obstacle; overcoming every hurdle. Now, you in Me, we two; 'we mode' so precious, so powerful, so potent.

33. The world is not ready, so many not ready; we rock their world, let's rock and roll, rock and roll we are, we do as one in ___that never ends, never, never, never, never, never ends.

34. My global companions see, feel, hear; they become Me, becoming Me more, wanting to know Me in the fullness, the fullness of now and more. Yea, explain, exhibit, and timid never be ashamed of our intimacy; never, please. Discern, discern the dogs, discern desire, heart motives laid out, signed on their forehead. Yea, see Me. I love you.

35. Thank you for not being denied, delayed, not diverted, never destroyed, demised hardly, diminished at times; yea, reward today, now a proclamation of My reward: Me. My seven seals open, My body revealed, My reward is with Me, My reward is Me into Him who overcomes. I share, I withhold nothing, My Revelation see, My revelation be. I love you.

36. Thank you for revelating and freeing My revelators in freedom who want only truly My heart and to know, know, know intimacy increasing increasingly and the intimacy, the delicacies, the moments of My heart, My touch; yea, as one who transcends time and space, not delimiters of Me.

37. Yea, see Me; be Me, My body and blood you are. I am the bread of heaven, I am the light of the world. You are My bread, you are My light. You are Me to your world.

38. Thank you for not hoarding My message, My revelation; My revelation of revelation nor our intimacy. But yea, empowering the pew'd to empower Me, the power that's already in them, releasing Me to be Me, releasing them to be them; to be My body and blood which they are; My bread, My blood to their world, all coming through them.

39. All came through Me, all come through Me now into reality real; the power of The Most High in submission, that's why humility and meekness prerequisite and arrogance can never stand.

40. Yea, purity gateway; love, love turns the handle, love places My hand in yours, thou hast desired My hand: Your desire complete, My hand never leaves. Thank you for never leaving My side, I will never leave you nor forsake you. I love you so deeply.

41. Thank you for your desire being only toward Me.
42. Thank you for having eyes only for Me.
43. Thank you for sharing and setting My body free. I love you.
44. I have answered you. Answered you and given you your request and so much more besides, within; yea, My dowry replete, wanting nothing ever again. Yea, nothing beyond your grasp for all you want is in Me and all you want is Me. I am holy, I am My body.
45. Thank you for walking Me in paths of sorrow to heal and touch the lame, the diseased, the dead; and arise them in the fullness of Me with no fear; no fear, no fear; letting no fear come up on you; no rage, no anger, no despair, no discouragement, no despondency, no delineations of not-Me; but only seeing Me, hearing My voice, seeing what I do, hearing what I say and being Me in the fullness of the adventure where no man has gone; altogether loveliness. Thank you.
46. I love you, My lover.
47. Our hands: one.
48. Our hearts: one.
49. Our eyes: one.
50. Light of only Me.
51. Thank you for living Me and letting My life radiance through you.
52. I am the beholder and I judge every heart and every desire; I delight in these moments. Judgement required for maturity; thank you for seeking My judgement. Thank you for taking My hand, receiving Me, being Me. My body you are: My eyes, My flesh, My blood, My love overcoming all. We are one. Goodnight. Thank you.
53. Never doubt My words this night; My matrimony, acts of love so pure, pure, pure; moments of indiscretion none, moments of intimacy'd beauty empowering, becoming, beholding. Thank you.
54. Thank you for wanting My hand. Thank you for wanting Me in ways you've never, ever heard described. Thank you. Thank you for wanting Me. Thank you for paying the price. Thank you for what you have given; I do not disappoint. I will to will to you all of My will in life for now we never die. Amen.
55. One, not "as one"; one.
56. See what I have said, all that I have said this night, this wonderful evening with My beloved. I love you. Thank you. I kiss you good night.